

University College MCR Code of Conduct

Being a member of University College is an honour and privilege out of which arises certain commensurate responsibilities. As such, members of the University College Middle Common Room must strive to act in accordance with the obligations arising from the august history and tradition of our Common Room, College, and University.

University College Middle Common Room expects its members to:

- (i) Engage with each other, first-and-foremost, with open-mindedness and curiosity.
- (ii) Strive to cultivate friendships, build partnerships, support, and learn from each other.
- (iii) Treat each other with dignity and respect regardless of identity, background, creed, or conscious.
- (iv) Endeavour to undertake all we do with good humour and a positive spirit.
- (v) Respect and value debate, democracy, and the democratic process.
- (vi) Conduct ourselves in a manner that demonstrates integrity beyond reproach.
- (vii) Repudiate any form of discrimination, harassment, or bullying, be it verbal, physical, visual, or virtual.
- (viii) Uphold our rules as set out in the Standing Orders and to follow due process first-and-foremost.
- (ix) Live our motto "Non Nobis Solum - not for ourselves alone."
